HAD ENOUGH
In what seems to be a mood of quiet desperation a radio station in New York has announced a ban on all performances of the song "Open the Door, Richard" on its programs and a moratorium on all Richard gags. Although a person is only an occasional and sporadic listener to the radio, it isn't difficult to understand how the managers of this ether outlet feel.

The ancient Chinese had an ingenious torture in which single drops of water were allowed to fall on a prisoner's forehead at regular intervals, hour after hour, until he finally went mad. The effect of the Richard song and the Richard jokes on anyone who is compelled to listen to the radio, hour after hour and day after day, could easily be identical. However clever the tune and the gags may have been at first, a man eventually reaches the point where he feels he will rush off screaming if he hears them one more time.

It would be heartening to think that this station's ban on Richard and his door marked the first step in a campaign to end the infernal repetition which marks so much of radio's fare. But apparently those who concoct chain programs have not yet learned that radio listeners are not bound hand and foot like the Chinese in the torture chamber.

They can and will switch their receivers off when the repetition of the same old tunes, gags and commercials threatens to go beyond the level of endurance.

SOUNDS OF NORMALCY

Harmonicas have helped shape smoke dreams at innumerable Boy Scout camp fires. And long before there were Boy Scouts the reedy, wheezy strains of a harmonica were the first introduction of countless American boys to the thrill of producing music. When conscription finally came to America, it was the boy's harmonica which went into his suitcase on the eve of departure for the induction center, a treasured link with carefree boyhood, a bulwark against the lonely unknown ahead.

Harmonicas became scarce during the war. American harmonica factories were converted to war production. German and Japanese makes, which had been imported in large numbers, were no longer to be had. Thus the present generation of boys largely has come through an impressionable period without experiencing the pleasures of possessing a good, old-fashioned 35-cent mouth organ.

The shortage is almost over now. American factories have been reconverting. The government-owned U. S. Commercial Company will put 72,000 Japanese models on sale this month and apparently German imports will not be too far behind. Mom and Dad can look forward to a cacophonous future until the latest crop of small fry masters the finer points of blow, draw and double-tongue.

"NON-INTERVENTION"

The "great experiment" of President Roosevelt, namely, the appeasement of Russia by giving her everything she demanded, was based on precisely what President Truman said at Mexico we will not tolerate: a strong nation imposing its will, by reason of its strength, on a weaker nation.

The "strong nation," in the first instance, was Russia; but the strength of the United States and Great Britain, plus their willingness to run out on the promises made in the Atlantic Charter, was what made the unholy bargain stick.

At the very moment when President Truman spoke, he had just finished deciding that it is our duty to intervene in Greece. It's all very well for him to droll on the idea, in this instance, and insist that we are going to intervene there to impose the will of a Greek majority rather than our own; but that's just talk. No one knows what the Greeks really want, and no one is planning to try to find out.

Only recently the foreign experts under Truman went to bat on the idea we ought to intervene in Spain, and force the abdication of Franco. This was dropped, not because it violated the moral principle set forth by the President at Mexico City, but simply because it became evident the temper of the American people wouldn't stand for any such long-range monkeying.

The same public disinclination to permit our diplomatic staffs to tinker with the internal affairs of other lands, and not any compunctions on the part of these diplomats themselves, was what forced the calling off of Washington's plans to compel Argentina to revise its form of government.

At this very time, and of course at the moment when the President was speaking, there is in preparation a meeting for the purpose of virtually universal interference and intervention of a group of powerful nations into the economic affairs of all others.

This is the International Trade Organization meeting to be held shortly in Geneva. If it can be carried out as pictured by the believers in "global free trade", it will set up a small body which will have the power of parcelling out production, markets and consumption of the world's goods—and the nation which finds itself weakened thereby will be told that "it's for your own good," and "if you don't like it you can lump it."

Is this "non-intervention"? Not so you can notice it. As for the U. S. A., it will mean bluntly that the real control of our own industrial economy will be in the hands of foreign nations who, in the recent past, have not been conspicuously sympathetic to us.

Whatever may have been in the back of President Truman's mind when he spoke at Mexico City, what he wound up saying was something which doesn't bear even the most casual examination.

This country, Mr. Truman's Administration, and the entire United Nations, are all committed to "intervention." He himself is demanding powers from Congress, and planning to use the authorities he already has (such as the "bargaining right" in the Reciprocal Trade Agreements extension) for direct intervention wherever he thinks it would be a good idea.

One of the reasons he keeps insisting on a big army and navy is to make such intervention effective.

For him to come out in favor of the principle of "non-intervention", under such circumstances, is to be guilty once again of the unfortunate diplomatic double-talk which has done so much to confuse correct public understanding of what goes on in the world.

The Great Game of Politics

International dance spring festival in 1947 which will be held at Metropolitan Opera House in New York, and for a possible United States tour after the festival. Discussions are in progress with Volks, but no concrete developments have taken place. As you know, I greatly admire the Russian ballet, and I can assure you that a Soviet ballet company could be extremely well received in the United States and its presence at international dance festival would have a very favorable effect. I sincerely hope that this invitation may be accepted.

"SIX. I have recently received a request from United States, sponsored by Surgeon General of Public Health Service, that three American doctors, Drs. Theodore S. Hauchka, Michael B. Shinkin and Murray J. Shear, be authorized to visit Soviet Union to study cancer research methods. Developments in cancer research by Doctors Roskin and Klyueva and other distinguished Soviet medical scientists have created the greatest interest in the United States. My own conversation with Drs. Roskin and Klyueva and with other members of Soviet Academy of Medical Sciences left me with impression that their recent contribution to humanity's struggle against cancer may have the most profound effect. The people and Government of United States will be most grateful if this request can be approved at an early date.

"SEVEN. In February, 1946, Dr. Harold W. Dadds, president of Princeton University, extended through Soviet Ambassador in Washington invitations to university's biennial celebration for a number of distinguished Soviet scholars, including Profs. Peter L. Kapitza, L. D. Landau, Sergei I.

Vavilov and others. At the same time the Rockefeller Foundation extended invitations to Profs. Ivan M. Vinogradov and Lev S. Pontryagin. Although no acknowledgment was received of these invitations and the occasion of the university's biennial celebration to which they were invited has passed, I am sure they would be renewed if Soviet Government indicated a willingness to accept them.

"EIGHT. In March, 1946, Embassy transmitted to Ministry an invitation from Mr. Henry B. Cabot, president of trustees of Boston Symphony Orchestra, to Eugene Mravinsky, conductor of Leningrad Philharmonic to be the guest of Boston Symphony either October 21 to November 4, or December 16 to December 30, 1946. No reply was received to this invitation and the periods for which it was extended have passed, but it has been indicated to me that it would be renewed if Soviet Government will authorize its acceptance.

"NINE. On May, 16, 1947, Embassy transmitted to Ministry offer of Mr. George Koussevitzky and Boston Symphony Orchestra to proceed to Soviet Union for two weeks at their own expense and to perform for Soviet audiences, the proceeds from tickets to be devoted to whatever local benefit as might be designated by Soviet authorities. Ministry was informed that the orchestra hoped thereby to repay in some small part the magnificent co-operation of Soviet Union during the war. No reply having been received to Embassy's letter, and as time set for orchestra's proposed visit was approaching (month of September, 1946), the Embassy again wrote on July 2, inquiring what answer could be given to orchestra. No reply has thus far been received."

In concluding, the Ambassador, in his best diplomatic manner, says: "Should the Soviet authorities now be disposed to accept this offer, I shall be very happy to transmit this invitation in the hope that it will be renewed." It is doubtful whether any similar letter from an Ambassador of a great country has ever come to the State Department. Its notable feature is that though couched in such language, no offense can justly be taken and it appears merely a communication which it was the duty of the Ambassador to make. Nevertheless, it is impossible not to recognize that, whether he realized it or not, what our Ambassador really was saying is that Marshal Stalin's statement to Elliott is utter nonsense; that the Soviet Government (which Mr. Stalin is), instead of encouraging cultural and scientific exchanges (which Mr. Stalin says he wants to do), has done the exact opposite; that in numerous instances it has rejected some proposals, ignored others, approved none that were reciprocal, that the Soviets, willing enough to have their people roam freely over the United States, are unwilling to have a similar number of United States citizens roaming freely about Russia; that really they do not want any "truck" with Americans at all. They are difficult people to deal with.

THIRD CHALLENGER IN GEORGIA

AN INDEPENDENT candidate in the November elections, D. Talmadge Bowers (standing, dark suit) is now the third claimant to the governorship of Georgia. Following an article in an Atlanta newspaper, alleging irregularities in Telfair County, Bowers said he would demand a recount of write-in votes for Gov. Herman Talmadge. In the photo, he is checking a canvass of votes by a committee of the Georgia legislature which later declared Talmadge to be governor. (International)

Guns were carried by the men in all of the stickups except the liquor store job on South Broad street, the detectives charge. There Nolan, police say, varied the technique by carrying a length of pipe as a weapon.

In the Ewing Township liquor store holdup the trio failed to see an expensive diamond engagement ring worn by the former Miss Ruth Salup, 19, of West State street. She was married last Sunday to the holdup victim, Leon Vegotsky.

Governor Duff Signs Primary Date Law

HARRISBURG, Mar. 6—Governor James H. Duff yesterday signed the Tallman bill fixing Sept. 9 as the date of this year's primary election.

Under the measure, sponsored in the Legislature by Senator O. J. Tallman (R., Lehigh), the date of primary elections in odd-numbered years is shifted from the third Tuesday in June to the second Tuesday of September.

Also approved by the Governor were five companion bills changing registration dates in the State to comply with the switch in the primary election.

For many years primary elections in odd-numbered years were held in September, but during the war the date was shifted to June in order that soldier voting might be facilitated.

Opposition to returning to the fall date was voiced by a handful of legislators, but the Tallman measures were passed with the support of the powerful House and Senate delegations, Republicans and Democrats alike, from Philadelphia and Allegheny counties.

KNIGHTS BOW TO PROFY FIVE BY
SCORE OF 33 TO 29

Victory Practically Assures
Mill Street Team of The Season Championship

NOW 3 GAMES AHEAD

Field Goals by Cole and Gallagher Gave Profymen
The Victory

Missing several set-ups in the last minute of the game caused the Knights of Columbus team to bow to the league-leading Profy five last night on the Rohm and Haas court. Final score was 33-29.

The victory practically assures the Mill Streeters the regular season championship of the Bristol Basketball League, as they are now three games ahead of their closest competitor.

Field goals by "Johnny" Cole and "Reds" Gallagher gave the Profymen the triumph after the lead had seen-sawed in the final quarter. Three field goals by Frank Mignoni put the Knights ahead, 24-23, and after a little jockeying, Boyle tied the score at 27-27 and then put the Casey in front with a foul goal.

Gallagher dropped in a foul and tied the score at 28-28 and Carnvale's free shot gave Profy the lead. Harry Ferry was fouled and made good on one of his two throws to again deadlock the count at 29-29. But Cole put in the winning fielder with a shot from the center-mark of the court. To make victory certain, Gallagher followed with a set-up. Before the final gun barked, three Knights players had easy tries for field goals and missed.

"Johnny" Slaven was high in the game with 10 points but Slaven had difficulty in scoring when guarded by "Vince" Profy. Kain and Mignoni were high for the Radcliffe St. team with 6 points each.

Here and There In
Bucks County Towns

Guard unit at Doylestown, and the only one in Bucks county, and the benefit of having an Armory located in the county seat, Captain Aaron C. Griffiths, commanding officer, announced a series of events.

Next Monday, March 10, a basketball game between the American Legion team and a Philadelphia Security & Exchange team, of the U. S. Government League, will be staged.

Following the basketball game, a film, "War in Europe" will be shown.

"Both the basketball game and the movie" are being presented in the armory so that the people may secure an idea of the advantages in having a National Guard outfit in town," said Captain Griffiths.

Two persons were admitted to St. Luke's Hospital, Bethlehem, following an accident in which three vehicles were involved at Center Valley on Monday evening. The accident took place on the Bethlehem pike, about a mile north of Center Valley.

Admitted to the hospital were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Buckley. Troopers of Quakertown barracks of the State Police say the Buckley car was demolished.

The car occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Buckley collided head-on with a machine driven by Arthur S. Peterson, 49, Easton, after it had careened into a tank truck operated by William Drow, Swedeland, Montgomery county.

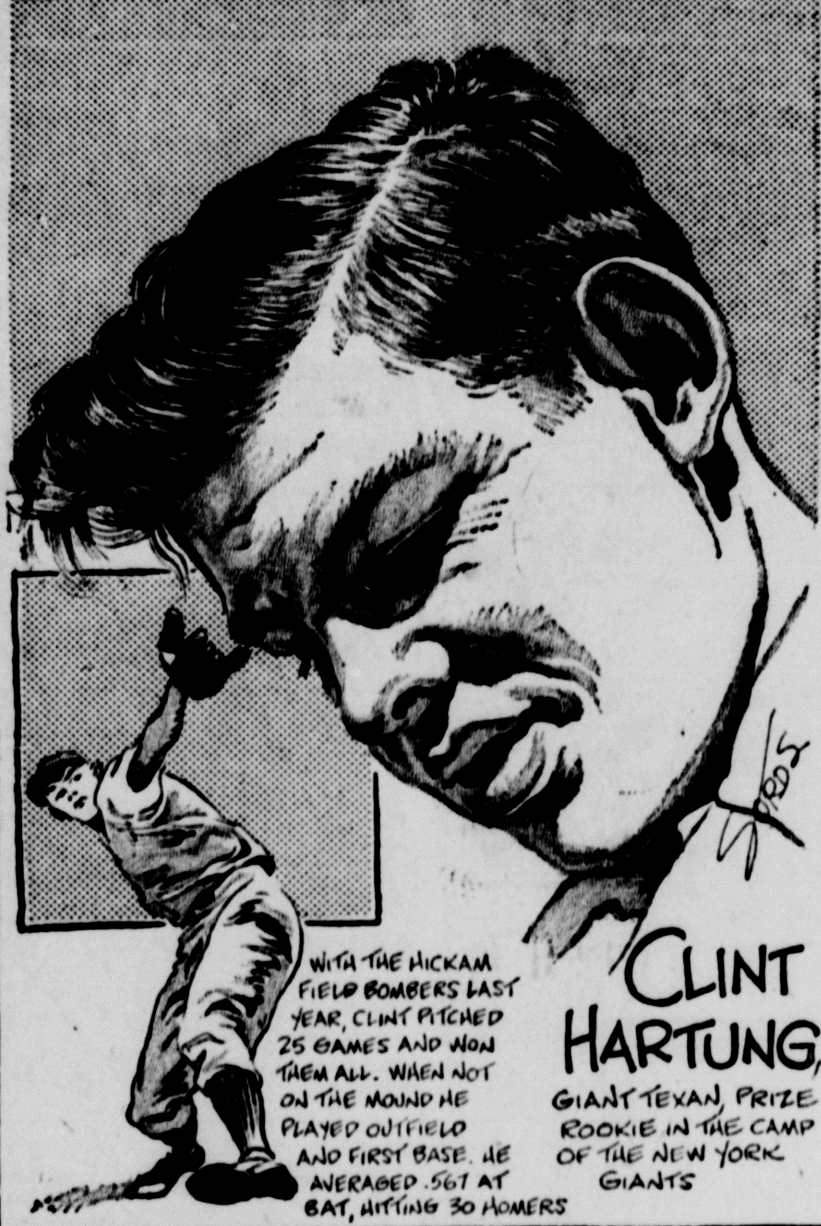

Peterson and Drow both escaped injury. Peterson's car, after figuring in the collision with the automobile occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Buckley, left the highway and ran up an embankment. It was badly damaged, and the dual wheels of the left rear of the truck were broken.

Buckley, according to hospital officials, received a fractured leg and a laceration of the scalp. Mrs. Buckley suffered a slight fracture of the skull, fractured ribs and a laceration of the forehead.

FIFTH WARD HOPES ARE NOW SHATTERED

The pennant hopes of the Fifth Ward Sporting Club were shattered last night as it was beaten by a determined Falls Alumni team on the Rohm and Haas court. Final score was: Alumni, 37, Fifth Ward, 34.

The Warders were trailing by 15 points at half-time but in the second half came back strong to outplay their rivals and almost tie the score. However, "Freddie" Briegele and Al Monti scored the field goals which decided the issue.

Outstanding in the second half attack of the losers was Mayo Scancellia who played a fine defensive game as well as scored five points. Monti played good ball for the losers.

Joe Plebani and "Reds" DiAngelo were high for Fifth Ward while Anderson had 10 points to lead the Alumni club.

With Dick Mingin and Bert Barbetta leading the attack, the St. Ann's A. A. basketball team remained in the running for a playoff position by defeating the Badenhausen aggregation, 39-24, last night on the Rohm and Haas floor.

The "Saints" had the lead from the start and at one stage of the game were ten points ahead of their opponents.

Mingin scored 15 points while Barbetta accounted for 13. George Hutton had 12 points for Badenhausen with "Jimmy" Cooper getting 10. The usual high-scoring "Benny" Sammel was held scoreless from the field although he played good defensive ball for the losing club.

Sellersville Seeks Full Time Police Protection

SELLERSVILLE, Mar. 6—Sellersville borough council is looking for another police officer to provide the borough with full-time protection. It is announced.

Frank H. Hallman has been serving as chief of police, but his hours are staggered, and borough officials are now planning full-time coverage.

Several applicants failed to meet requirements. Council desires to secure a man who has had state police force experience, giving him 48 hours duty per week.

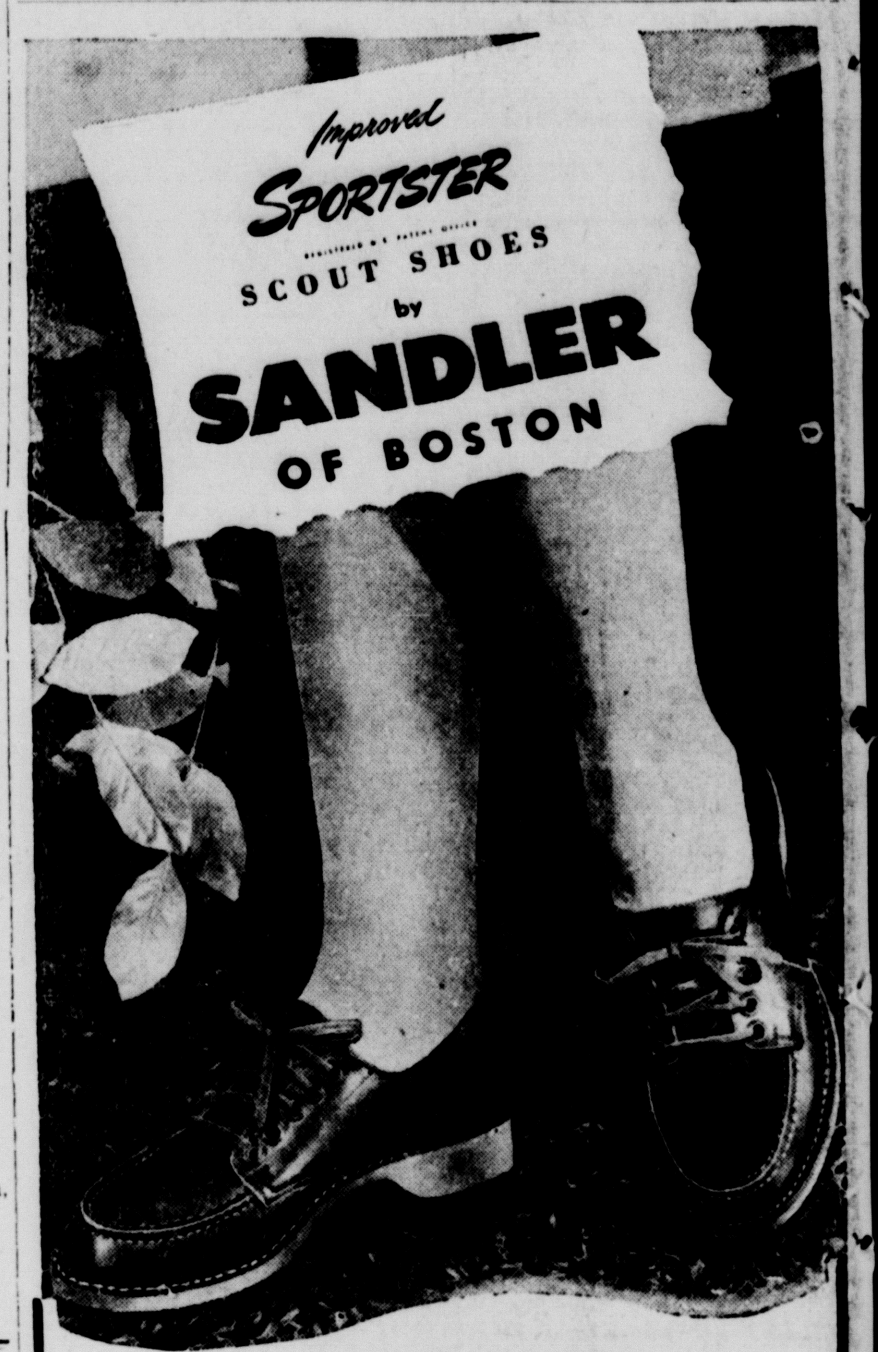

Cost of snow removal during the heavy storm of last month was $400 in the borough it is said. Street Commissioner Phillip Coll and other borough employees were commended by officials for efficient manner of removing snow.

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 6 — Claiming the sum of $981.99, Lenore Ulric, stage and screen actress, has named Gertrude Kohlman, Upper Makefield township, the defendant in an action in assumpsit in the Court of Common Pleas, here.

Miss Ulric, who owns a home at Cleveland Drive and Sunset road, Croton, N. Y., avers, in a statement of claim, that the defendant agreed to pay $1615 as a rental fee at the rate of $134.57 a month.

The actress-plaintiff further alleges that the defendant, whose address is 82 South Hamilton street, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., moved out of the Croton house October 31, 1942. The claim calls for the sum of $134.57 for October, and the sum of $847.42 from November 1, 1942 to April 1, 1943. A sister of the defendant, Agnes Sams, resides in Upper Makefield township.

Raymond M. Opdyke, Jr., and Pearl S. Opdyke, Newtown township, have filed an action versus Sallie F. McClanahan to quiet a title on real estate on Lincoln and Washington avenues in Newtown.

NEED FOR COMMUNITY RECREATION GROWING

Many Things Emphasize The Profitable Uses of Leisure Time

TO SPEND MILLIONS

(Prepared for the Courier by the State Planning Board of the Department of Commerce.)

The social disturbances of war, the short workday and work week, and the widespread adoption of retirement systems by industry and government have all emphasized the need for healthful, pleasurable, and profitable uses of leisure time.

In the inventory of proposed public works maintained by the State Planning Board, it is found that Pennsylvania cities, boroughs, towns, ships, and school districts are now planning to spend millions of dollars to enlarge their recreational facilities. Among the projects to be undertaken when conditions make such construction practical are new playgrounds, athletic fields, stadia, and community and recreational buildings.

Many other communities are taking advantage of the provision in the School Law under which all types of school services, including recreational supervision, and extension courses in arts, crafts, and scholastic subjects, can be provided for out-of-school youths and adults on petition of fifteen citizens to their Board of Public Education. Under the provision of this Law the State pays reimbursement to the school districts for instructors on the same basis as that applied to teachers in the regular day-schools.

Nothing is of greater community importance than to furnish children and grownups of all ages with proper means for healthful recreation. As a consequence of war, many social disturbances have arisen, of which juvenile delinquency is only one symptom. As a matter of fact the growth of industrialism has at last reached the point where no community can any longer close its eyes to the fact that unless it provides proper outlets for the surplus energies of its people through not do its part in this important play facilities and educational and cultural services, its attractiveness, opportunity for its adults and young people to continue their education or to find stimulating and healthful activity during their leisure hours.

ANNOUNCEMENT

MEET Mr. Creaser and Mr. Whipps

Having sold my portrait and commercial studio to these two gentlemen, I desire to introduce them to my old customers and to new ones also. I can highly recommend them as worthy to carry on this photography business I started Twenty-five years ago. I feel sure they will carry on with the same high-grade work and continue to give the people of this section, and surrounding towns of Pennsylvania the same thoughtful and fair consideration that I have given in the past quarter-century.

Sincerely,
W. B. NICHOLS.

Having Purchased the Nichols Photography Studio

The Model 200 Metal ZIPPER contains all the built-in advantages of the Model 300 and is furnished with all standard attachments. It will handle the same light gauges as the 300. Does away with the hazards of gas welding. Actually, the Model 200 is exactly the same as the 300 except that its top capacity is 150 amperes. It provides a complete welding shop for the manufacturer where extremely heavy duty welding is not encountered. And, because this unit has a lighter draw on the lines it is especially recommended for farms and other areas where restrictions do not permit the use of heavier amperage equipment.

SERVICE FOR DISABLED PERSONS PLANNED

State Bureau Expands Its Facilities In The Bristol Area

COUNSELOR HERE

The Pennsylvania State Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation has recently expanded its facilities in the Bristol area and is particularly anxious that the nature of its services become better known to every physically disabled person in Bucks and surrounding counties. Broadly stated, the Bureau is equipped to serve any person whose physical impairments constitute a problem in securing remunerative employment or functioning satisfactorily in their present employment.

Disabled persons of either sex, beyond the age of 16, are eligible for service. The impairment does not necessarily have to be the result of an employment accident, but may be of any source, such as a public accident, war service, birth or certain types of illnesses. In each case, in an interview with the applicant, the particular needs of the individual are considered, employing medical reports, school records, psychological and other tests, and a program of rehabilitation formulated. Inasmuch as the need in each case varies, many types of services are provided, such as: formal vocational training, apprenticeships, medical care, hospitalization, physical and occupational therapy, and procurement of braces, artificial limbs, hearing aids, and other prosthetic aids and devices. After the applicant, with the aid of the Rehabilitation Counselor, has determined a suitable vocational objective, arrangements are made—generally at the expense of the Bureau—for procurement of the services indicated. After the client has completed the rehabilitation plans and is ready for employment, assistance is given in the matter of placement in a job suited to the client's disability, aptitude and training.

The Bristol office of the Pennsylvania State Employment Service, 212 Mill street, is actively co-operating with the Bureau, particularly in the matter of placement. Harry G. McNabb, the counselor assigned to Bucks County, presents himself

Faith Clarke's SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

FIRST in Philadelphia to have the ball-bearing motor "Compact" electric vacuum cleaner is the Snellenburg store. It's a whiz! It gives perfect performance at a lower power cost. Mounted in rubber, the horizontal ball-bearing motor (requiring no oiling) gives suction power with less noise. See it in the House Furnishings Dept. to appreciate it. $79.50. Sold on a deferred payment plan if you wish. (3rd fl.)

GLAMOROUS WALLS can change not only the rooms of a house but can lift the morale of the whole family. Personally I prefer to work with the beautiful "Hydroll" flat tones. This is a water paint with an oil base for greater permanence and beauty. Moreover, it has only the slightest of odors when drying in comparison with many other wall finishes. "Hydroll" will cover anything that is not metal, even stone! It takes about only one hour to dry, and it can be washed. To each gallon of "Hydroll" you add a half gallon of water. Very easy to apply. Besides, full instructions come with each purchase. You may have your choice of Ivory, buff, pastel green, peach, pink, yellow, cream, blue, seafoam green. $1.15 per quart, $3.80 per gallon. Find "Hydroll" in the Snellenburg House Furnishings Dept. (3rd fl.)

STARTING BOXES ready-made for spring seeds are a convenience no gardener should do without. The Snellenburg Garden Dept. has that famous packet, "The Green Thumb Window Garden," consisting of two collapsed starting containers and twelve transplanting boxes, all drawing water from the bottom up. Full instructions in package. Priced at but 79c. Or perhaps you'd prefer the "Osma" sets at $1. The set consists of a knocked-down wood flat and thirty-six two-inch Osma pots ready to assemble. These Osma sets are the sort of pots that can be planted right in the ground and left there. Extra pots come at 25 for 39c, 60 for 55c, 150 for $1.10. (1st fl.)

REAL SILK TIES! And at a mere $1.50, though valued at $3.50 to $5. You'll find this generous offering in the Snellenburg Men's Furnishings Dept. Here is a golden chance to get your men's Easter gifts. There's a grand array of patterns and colors. (1st fl.)

A NEW FIGURE for your spring outfit can be yours! The Snellenburg Corset Salon is now displaying a miraculous new "Artist Model" foundation by "American Lady," at $15. Sizes are from 36 to 44. The "Artist Model" coaxes a figure into lines of beauty by gentle but firm persuasion. The great advantage of this foundation is that the long lace upper bra is detachable for adjusting or washing. The lower garment is of tear-resistant rayon batiste with elastic insets. (2nd fl.)

MODERN DECORATING has achieved beautiful effects with unframed mirrors. At one time these mirrors had to be specially designed, made to order, but now it is possible to obtain a great variety. I know of no place that has as many beautiful designs as the Mirror Dept. of Snellenburg. Nor do I know of any prices quite so reasonable. The collection has designs in fine-quality plate glass with beveled edges and guaranteed silvering. There are plain designs and designs exquisitely bordered with etching. There's a choice of oblongs, ovals, shields, circles, etc. Sizes range from 22 to 28 ins. to 36 x 46 ins. Prices range from $14.95 to $39.95. The mirrors make superlative wedding gifts. (4th fl.)

MILLINERY ART is at its best in the exclusive little "Salon" off the Second Floor Millinery Dept. of the Snellenburg store. I am delighted with the pre-liminary trend is that of gaiety. Definitely the trend is that of gaiety. Never has a season sponsored so many pastels, so many combinations of colors. Not only are the Salon hats beeboned, but flowers and even fruit are much in evidence. These Salon hats are in exquisite taste and are designed for flattery. You'll adore them! $12.75 upwards. (2nd fl.)

NEW FOR OLD—that is what you will have if you put fresh new "Sure-Fit" knitted covers on your furniture this spring! The Snellenburg Upholstery Dept. has these easily adjusted covers in two smart patterns—a figure and a stripe. Mix them if you like. "Sure-Fits" are elastic and are adjustable to several styles of sofas and chairs. Chair covers are priced at $4.95, sofa covers at $9.95. Yes, they're washable—and no ironing! (4th fl.)

P.S. Do send clippings with mail orders when you can! Phone free (5c, 10c, and 15c out-of-town calls only). Penna.—ENT. 10160; Jersey—WX-1150. Shop located Market, 11th to 12th Sts., Phila.—through to 1125-29 Chestnut St. Be hearin' from you! Faithfully, FAITH.

Without Painful Backache
Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging headache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty urination with burning and stinging sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully for millions for over 50 years. Doan's gives speedy relief and will help the 15 million kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

B. H. S. QUINTET TO PARTICIPATE IN P. I. A. A. TOURNEY

Will Meet Radnor, Section Two Champions, This Evening

TILT AT NORRISTOWN

Bunnies Won 12 Straight Games in Lower Bucks Conference

The Bristol high quintet, undefeated Lower Bucks County League champions, will participate in the P. I. A. A. tournament tonight, meeting Radnor High, section two champions, at Norristown. Game will begin at eight o'clock.

The Bunnies won 12 straight games in the Lower Bucks conference while Radnor won the Suburban section two championship, winning nine and losing one. Along with Radnor in its section are the following schools: Media, Darby, Lansdowne, Chester and Collingdale.

The Radnor boys are led by "Jimmy" Lafferty and "Pete" Bonaventura. Lafferty is the mainstay of the team and does most of the scoring. He will be watched by "Jimmy" Sottile, Bristol's center. If Sottile succeeds in holding down Lafferty, then the Bunnies will have a fine chance of entering the semi-finals next Tuesday night at the Penn Palestra.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
A Definition of Our Town
Somebody defined our town just the other day as "A place where the people talk about you behind your back, and come to wait on you when you're sick."
I've got to admit there's something to it. A lot of our folks are inclined to be pretty outspoken and quick to criticize... even about little things, like a woman's hat, or a man's preference for a glass of beer, or the color of Cy Hartman's new barn.
But when anyone's in trouble, these differences and points of criticism are forgotten... and folks become neighborly and helpful, like they really are.
From where I sit, criticism never did much harm to anybody, so long as folks don't let it guide their actions... so long as they respect our individual preferences, whether they apply to hats or beer. That's the way it is in our town, anyway, and I hope that it's the same in yours.

squad are: Denagni, Dorrance, King, Ritter, Beadle and Paulina. High scorers on the squad of Coach Don Fetterman are Johnny Pindar and "Dezzy" DeLise. The former has averaged over 20 points per game and is one of the hardest shooters to stop because of his manner in shooting over-handed field goals. Guards on the Bunnies' team are "Easy" Mama and "Al" Burton.
Bristol finished its season with 18 wins and two defeats. Both defeats were at the hands of the strong Trenton Catholic team.
